

APPENDIX D:

List of Videolinks and Initial Prompts

Video 1: Productive, Unproductive, or Destructive Entrepreneurship

https://youtu.be/p2QtT2ocBQU?si=9jtLuN\_pIFDDeLBU

Initial Prompt: As an entrepreneur, you can engage in entrepreneurship in productive, unproductive or destructive manners. Please outline what these terms mean to you, personally.

Video 2: Working Hard and Creating Value for Society as Justifications for Extreme Wealth

<https://youtu.be/ttLqZ7RlhoA?si=wzsI5Go9g7Ir9oVk>

Initial Prompt: You will likely work hard and create value for society, in various forms. How, and in what amounts, would you find it fair to be rewarded for that?

Video 3: Descendants, Divorcees, and Inheritance

https://youtu.be/\_YJSGcCGzJ8?si=KEB0F\_5X1qllorvQ

Initial Prompt: You may have a romantic partner and children at some point. How, and in what amounts, would you find it fair that they will be transferred any wealth that you may have earned?

Video 4: Incentives

<https://youtu.be/ljOyhoRee98?si=lpOOu2fHqXGWWlfZ>

Initial Prompt: Would lower taxes encourage you to engage in entrepreneurship, and higher taxes discourage you? What other motives determine your motivation to engage in entrepreneurship?

Video 5: Consumption

<https://youtu.be/rYC6qDQ-bqE?si=jnU7Cdyna0x0rUE2>

Initial Prompt: As an entrepreneur, you may become wealthier than many others in your community or society. Once richer than others, you may also engage in privileged consumption, for example, renting a holiday home at a private beach, or ensuring access to the best hospital services, or placing your children in private schools. Would this restrict others in their access to resources and opportunities? And, if it does, is this a problem?

Video 6: Large Influence

<https://youtu.be/iW9oCi4N7EU?si=RotWZ7qDYa7ILaz7>

Initial Prompt: As an entrepreneur, you may become wealthier than many others in your community or society. Once richer than others, you may exert more influence over various aspects than less affluent members do. What do you feel and think about this?

Video 7: Limited Accountability

<https://youtu.be/FgJUZ6r17kc?si=LBPkjtXB2pmowTAF>

Initial Prompt: As an entrepreneur, you may become wealthier than many others in your community or society. Once richer than others, do you feel you should somehow be accountable for how you use your wealth?

Video 8: Tax Avoidance

<https://youtu.be/fMbVXp6HajY?si=05ii3YFVAWoPRVC0>

Initial Prompt: As an entrepreneur, you may become wealthier than many others in your community or society. Once richer than others, do you feel you carry a special responsibility to contribute to the expenses of their government? Or are you entitled to minimize tax payments through any legal means, just like any other person?

Video 9: Mini Case Study - Climate Finance

<https://youtu.be/RFFWRbbvEak?si=z1brnre22jTE3VST>

Initial Prompt: As an entrepreneur, you may become wealthier than many others in your community or society. Once richer than others, do you feel you should be compelled to contribute to climate finance? If so, how?)

Video 10: Social Comparison

https://youtu.be/RFFWRbbvEak?si=pL-\_4tFVgosUcAQo

Initial Prompt: Looking beyond how you will earn and use any possible wealth you may obtain as an entrepreneur, do you experience the very existence of wealth inequality as positive or negative?

Video 11: Social Conflict and Violence

https://youtu.be/u6pq\_-8VcWY?si=6IZqGBfl8rX3T9vt

Initial Prompt: Do you believe that extreme wealth inequality could lead to societal conflict and violence? If so, when could this happen?
